EDITORIAL PROFILE:

Le Courrier des Maires accompanies the local councils in their mission. It provides them all the necessary information to be in office with efficiency and security. Each month, it offers in-depth analysis and summaries of the news and provides concrete solutions in the domains of finance, laws, economic development, building and urbanism.

The magazine is divided into 6 sections: "L'Actualité" (information, technical, economical and political issues), "Dossier" (surveys and reports), "Initiatives" (tools for local management and 10 advises), "Votre mandat" (training, insurance, contacts, income, etc.), "Le Cahier Juridique (juridical information) and "Les 50 questions" (each month, a different subject about local management).
