MARKET POSITION:

L'Argus is the undisputed market leader in the French insurance press. With a 100% professional readership, this business magazine is the most cost-effective way to reach the key decision-makers in the insurance industry. Created in 1877, L'Argus also publishes several separate publications dedicated to insurance professionals. In addition to its leading position overall, L'Argus is the only weekly in this specialised market.

EDITORIAL PROFILE:

Presented as a classical magazine, L'Argus supplies very specialised information because of a very targeted readership. However, since L'Argus covers a large range of insurance professionals, the editorial content is very wide and deals weekly with topics such as life insurance, personal investments, property insurance and risk management. L'Argus has six weekly editorial sections:

- 1) "Actualité": Coverage of the international insurance news.
- 2) "Acteurs": Well documented articles on companies and people who have influences in the market.
- 3) "Enquêtes et Dossiers": Special reports
- 4) "Pratiques": Practical news on insurance products, taxes, companies, etc...
- 5) "Régions": Regional news
- 6) "Services": Classified ads, readers' letters, and index of companies quoted in the issue.

Due to this presentation, readers can find immediately the information they require.
