The mobile version of the photojournalism magazine

CORE TARGET:

Geo mobile is the interactive version of the magazine Géo, the monthly magazine of photojournalism which brings back photos and texts which make reference from all around the world: the biggest photojournalists, the big reporters, the journey writers or the researchers collaborate to Géo.

It gives meaning through history and geography, and looks in reverse angle of the current events for a better knowledge of the stakes tied to the country, the people and the events that shatter them. Its core audience is comprised of ABC1, aged between 25 and 49.

CONCEPT:

Geo mobile proposes editorial complements to the reports of the magazine: returns of missions (interviews), portfolios with exclusive photos.

The app maintains the community of the travellers and the reporters GEO: "between travellers" allows the Internet users to put on-line and to exchange photos, impressions, and recommendations.

The practical function is represented with "the help to travellers".

Geo mobile extends the ways of understanding the world.
